CLARE DE KITCHEN.

In old Kentuck in de ar - ter - noon, We sweep de floor wid a bran new broom, And ar - ter dat we form a ring, And dis de song dat we do sing, Oh! Clare de kitch - en old folks young folks, Clare de kitch-en, old folks young folks, Old Vir - gin - ny nev - er tire.

I went to de creek, I couldn't git across,
I'd nobody wid me but an old blind horse;
But old Jim Crow came riding by,
Says he, old fellow your horse will die.
Its Clare de kitchen, &c.

My horse fell down upon de spot,
Says he "dont you see his eyes is sot;"
So I took out my knife and off wid his skin,
And when he comes to life I'll ride him agin.
So Clare de kitchen, &c.

A jay bird sot on a hickory limb,
He wink'd at me and I wink'd at him;
I pick'd up a stone and I hit his shin,
Says he you better not do dat agin.
So Clare de kitchen, &c.

A Bull frog dress'd in sogers close,
Went in de field to shoot some crows;
De crows smell powder and fly away,
De Bull frog mighty mad dat day.
So Clare de kitchen, &c.

Den down I went wid Cato Moore,
To see de Steamboat come ashore;
Every man for himself so I pick'd up a trunk,
Leff off said de Captain or I burn you wid a chunk
And Clare de kitchen, &c.

I hab a sweetheart in dis town,
She wears a yellow striped gown,
And when she walks de streets around,
De hollow of her foot make a hole in de ground.
Now Clare de kitchen, &c.

Dis love is a ticklish ting you know,
It makes a body feel all over so;
I put de question to Coal black Rose,
She as black as ten of spades and got a lubby flat nose
So Clare de kitchen, &c.

Go away says she wid your cowcumber shin,
If you come here agin I stick you wid a pin;
So I turn on my heel and I bid her good bye,
And arter I was gone she began for to cry.
So Clare de kitchen, &c.

So now I'se up and off you see,
To take a julep sangaree;
I'll sit upon a tater hill,
And eat a little Whip poor will.
So Clare de kitchen, &c.

I wish I was back in old Kentuck,
For since I left it I had no luck;
De gals so proud dey wont eat mush,
And wen you go to court 'em dey say O hush
Its Clare de kitchen, &c.

O LUD GALS GIB ME CHAW TEBACKUR.

Here I am as you dis - kiv - ver, All de way from roar - ing riv - er; Here I cum as you all must know,

The first system of the musical score is in 2/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part includes a complex rhythmic pattern in the right hand and a more straightforward bass line in the left hand.

All for to play de ole ban - jo. O lud gals gib me chaw to - bac - kur,

The second system continues the piece. The piano accompaniment includes a section marked "Sym." (Symphony) in the right hand, which consists of a series of chords. The vocal line continues with the lyrics.

O lud gals, fotch a - long de whis - key, Makes my head swim when I gets a lit - tle tip - sy.

The third system concludes the piece. The piano accompaniment features a final chord in the right hand and a sustained bass note in the left hand. The vocal line ends with a final note.

Way down in de Indian nation,
 Pretty little gals from de wild goose nation,
 My wife's dead, an' I'm a widower,
 All de way from roaring river.

O lud gals, &c.

Ole Massa Miller goes out a preachin,

2d TENOR. Solo.

1st BASE.

An' up an' den down, Through all de town. Up an' down de streets am full ob chaps Wid calf's heads in de Ole Bull caps.

2d BASE.

3 Some looked so tall dat Old Dan said,
 Dey'd trunks ob leather on dar head,
 Like stuffed bull necks some look'd to view,
 An' some like gal's muffs cut in two.
 An' up an' down, &c.

4 Some looked like old Russia's sogers,
 Some like Mississippi's hosiers,
 Some look like wild cats arter a battle,
 An' some jis like de no horned cattle.
 An' up an' down, &c.

5 A drover cum to town one night,
 A gang ob dandies met his sight,
 He tried to catch 'em all straight way, -
 For he thought his cattle had run away.
 An' up an' down, &c.

6 Some get dar hair caps ob de hatter,
 Some steal a bull's hide—dat's no matter,
 Some little better up to snuff,
 Buy up de casts off ladies' muffs.
 An' up an' down, &c.

WILL YOU WALK INTO DE CANE-BRAKE.

My Cato is just gone out,
 And you will have nothing to fear;
 So open de door, and come in,
 An Dinah will meet you my dear.
 Oh! Dine, Dine, Dine, &c.

Now my Dinah since faithful you proved,
 I will cast off thoughts of despair,
 And each moment of pleasure that's lost,
 Is fresh in my memory my dear.
 Oh! Dine, Dine, Dine, &c.

YALLER GALS.

1. One day, just at de set ob sun, When de work was did and done, I took my ban - jo and I played, Be - twixt de sun-shine an de shade, Oh, get a-long, my yal-ler gals, De ebening sun tis de-clin-ing— Oh, git home, my yal-ler gals, For de dew on de grass am shin-ing.

A 'possum on a simmon tree,
With one eye looked right down on me,
Fast by his tail de critter hung,
And in de chorus sweetly sung,
O git home, &c.

I cast my eyes up to above,
And saw de light of heavenly love,
De comet set de clouds on fire—
Lord, how dis nigger did suspire!
O, git home, &c.

And de bull-frog grab him in de mouf;
When de bull-frog catch 'him, he give him a wipe,
And made him blow like an engine pipe.
O, git along, &c.

De alligator in de brake,
Plays fast asleep when he wide awake,
He wants to suck some nigger in,
As massa do a glass ob gin.
O, git along, &c.

If I did own an old gray hoss,
I would de alleghany cross;
I'd cross de mountain an de plain,
And neber hoe de corn again.
O, git along, &c.

Oh tired hab grown the weary hours!
Dey're goin to bed among de flowers;
My-own true lub I long to see,
And wid her drink some ginger tea.
O, git along, &c.

DE CULLERED COKETT.

1st TENOR. Music, Lucy Long.

1. Oh, white folks, you'se heard ob Lucy Long, She was born in Philadelphia and de subject ob my song, Oh, she is a fair darkey, ob de rale fust stock, Sing
And wid her head and shoulders she could split a block.

1. Oh, I kotch you toder morning, hanging by an ingin rope, Because Miss Lucy cut you like a cake o' brown soap. I'll soap you to de eyes, for dem lie-billous sayings, Sing
And I'll gib you de magnetic shock dat folk call. Clar-away-anca.

2d TENOR.

3. Oh, dar was a lub-sick darkey, about dat nigga's size, Dat fell in lub, and broke his nose, wid my sweet Lucy's eyes; Don't make dem sinivations, or I'll Sing
[smash your pumpkin head, And dislocate the organ whar you stow away your bread!]

And its no use a knocking at de door.

Is dat you Sam? No it is Jim, Is dat you Sam? No it is Jim. Is dat you Sam? No it is Jim, You aint good looking an you can't come in door, You aint good looking, you aint good looking, You aint good looking an you can't come in, You aint good looking, you aint good looking, You aint good looking, &c.

I hab often tell ob habin wives,
 But I neber heard tell ob one dat had nines lives,
 She was deformed in de limbs, and she had a crooked jaw,
 Come from an accident dat happened wid de door.
 Who's dat knocking, &c.

I dress myself up when I get done my work,
 And I went to a dance to see de wenchs flirt,
 Dar was a Bull dog in front, and he stretched out his paw,
 An he jerked off my coat tail a going in de door.
 Who's dat knocking, &c.

Going ober to Hobuc, in de steamboat,
 De bulgine busted and we all got afloat!
 I swum berry fast to a house near de shore,
 And I hung my clothes to dry on de railings round de door.
 Who's dat knocking, &c.

Old Dan Tucker and Dandy is dead,
 Dey boff got killed a bucking wid dar head;
 Dey boff had a fuss an you ought to heard dem sware,
 Dat's de way dey met dar death, a bucking gin de door.
 Who's dat knocking, &c.

SETTIN' ON A RAIL.

1. As I walked out by de light ob de moon, So mer-ri-ly sing-ing dis same tune, I cum a-cross a big ra-coon,
 2. I at de racoon take a peep, An den so softly to him creep, I found de Racoon fast asleep, An pull de Ra-coon off de rail,
 3. De Racoon gan to scratch an bite, I hit oncé wid all my might, I bung he eye an spile he sight, O I am dat ole child to fight,

A sit-tin on a rail, sit-tin on a rail, sit-tin on a rail, sit-tin on a rail, sleepin wer-ry sound.
 An pull him off de rail, fling him on de ground.
 O I'm dat child to fight, play de ban-jo too.

I tell de Racoon gin to pray,
 While on de ground de Racoon lay,
 But he jump up and run away,
 An soon he out ob sight, (repeat)
 Sittin on a rail.

My ole Massa dead an gone,
 A dose ob poison help him on,
 De Debil say him funeral song,
 Oh bress him let him go, (repeat)
 An joy go wid him to.

De Racoon hunt do werry quare,
 Am no touch to kill de deer,
 Becase you cotch him wid out fear,
 Sittin on a rail, (repeat)
 Sleepin werry sound.

Oh, all de songs dat eber I sung,
 De Racoon hunt's de greatest one,
 It always pleases old and young,
 An den dey cry encore, (repeat)
 An den I cum agin.

BELLE OB BALTIMORE.

161

I've been through Car - o - li - na, I've been to Ten - nes - see, I sailed the Mis - sis - sip - pi, For mas - sa set me free, I've kissed de lub - ly Cre - ole on Lou - si - an - a's shore, But I neb - er found de gal to match De blooming Belle ob Bal - ti - more.

Oh, boys, Belle's a beauty, Eyes so bright and cheek so soot - y, No gal I eb - er seen a - fore, So sweet as Belle ob Bal - ti - more.

Oh, boys, Belle's a beauty, Eyes so bright and cheek so soo - ty, No gal I eb - er seen a - fore, So sweet as Belle ob Bal - ti - more.

My Belle is tall and slender,
And sings so berry clear,
You'd tink she was an owlingale,
If once her voice you hear;
I walked down to her cabin
And rapped upon the door,
I went to gub my doggertype
To my sweet Belle ob Baltimore.
Oh, boys, &c.

I found her by de ribber,
My errand I did tell,
Says she, "You gay deceiber,
I know your tricks too well;
I seen you kiss anudder gal,
De berry night afore!"
Wid dat she turned upon her heel
And off went Belle ob Baltimore.
Oh, boys, &c.

I wrote my lub a letter,
And scented it so sweet,
De musk, de clobes, and peppermint,
Stuck out about a feet!
But all my trouble was no use,
I neber seen her more,
For I squashed de tender 'feckshins ob
My blooming Belle ob Baltimore.
Oh, boys, &c.

WHO'S DAT NIGGA DAR A PEEPIN'?

O here I cum just for to sing, 'Bout dis and dat and de od - er ting,

O I am a 'gwine for to tell you all, How I ris in lub, an how I did fall.
(SPOKEN.) But first of all, fore I 'press myself on dis kasion, I should like to know, (Cho.)

Who's dat nigga dar dat's peepin, Who's dat nigga dat I see; Who's dat nigga dar a peepin, Go away nigga you can't cum to tea.

Who's dat nigga dar dat's peepin, Who's dat nigga dat I see; Who's dat nigga dar a peepin, Go away nigga you can't cum to tea.

Who's dat nigga dar dat's peepin, Who's dat nigga dat I see; Who's dat nigga dar a peepin, Go away nigga you can't cum to tea.

Oh I fell in lub wid Miss Dinah Crow,
 And her teef was like de clar grit snow,
 And her eyes likè dem beams dat shine from de moon,
 Sharper dan de teef of de Possum and de Coon—

Yes, you see dis nigga first exprised herself by seeing her promulgating herseff up and down Chesnut Street, perspirating dat foot ob hers up so high dat when it dropt it was death to all creeping insects, and den wid de poet I was 'strained to say,

Who's dat nigga, &c.

Oh I went dar one ebening, kording to rule,
 And I was exprised to see a nigga squattin on a stool
 Dar was Massa Zip Coon squatting down by de fire
 Singing dat song ob Ole Virginny neber tire—

Yes indeed, dare de digga was, dares no 'ception in dat, and as soon as dis nigga lit his eye 'pon him dare was quite a constervation 'mongst us niggas kase I axed Dinah if she would jist 'press herself openly pon de rezon and inform dis nigger,

Who's dat nigga, &c.

Now ladies and gemmen, my song is sung,
 And I hope you all hab some fun
 If you want to hear a song dat will keep you from sleepin,
 Hear who's dat nigga dar dat's peepin,

Yes indeed, dares so much percitation in it,
 dat it probitates de promulgation ob all oder sentiments and de only 'spression dat you hear is,

Who's dat nigga, &c.

Oh, den us niggers you ort for to see—
 Dar was me hugging him, and he was hugging me,
 Oh, he bit me pon my arm and tore my close,
 I fotch him a lick and brokè Miss Dinah's nose,

Den says I, jist look a here Miss Dinah, dats de facts ob your habbing more dan one nigga dressing himseff to you at one time, and now den, Miss Dinah, I shall lebe you for de present, but next time I sees any gemman ob color 'cept myself, I hope I shant be under de discumgresable necessity of axing you

Who's dat nigga, &c.

Oh de next morning dey took dem fore de mare,
 Who taught dey had not acted fair,
 So he sent dem down jist for thirty days apiece
 For kicking up a row and brakin de police.

Oh Lord, lova, lova, ha! ha! hush, honey, hush, de fust ting I knew in de morning, dere Massa Zip was poking his ugly mug out ob de "Black Maria," and den you ort to hear dis child fling out to him and ax

Who's dat nigga, &c.

THE BLUE TAIL FLY.

rah for the days of old, When ev' - ry man and wo - man too was a he - ro I've, been told.

Dere was a man among de rest
 And Washington was his name;
 And all de folks said he was de best,
 He had such a mighty fame;
 He nebber spared de enemy,
 But when odder men would tire,
 He wid his continentallers
 Would meet de red-coats, fire, fire, &c.
 And a running dey would go,
 And a running dey would go,
 For they tho't they'd got a little dose
 Ob de fire down below.

Deres a place out here called Bunker Hill,
 Whar de monument does stand,
 It's de spot whar Massa Warren fell,
 A-fighting for his land;
 De Yankees were told to save dere shot
 Till de enemy should get nigher,
 And when dey saw de white ob dere eye,
 Dey got de word to fire, fire, &c.
 But dey could not beat de foe,
 But dey could not beat de foe,
 And many a gallant heart dat day
 Was in de dust laid low.

But dere was anudder little hill
 Wat dey call de Dorch'ster Hights,
 Whar dey built a fort and cannons sot,
 All in a single night;
 When de British General saw de game,
 He thought he should suspire,
 So he sent an invitation for
 De Yankees to stop dere fire, fire, &c.
 But 'twas no use a talking so,
 It was no use a talking so,
 For de Yankees had found a patent way
 To make de red-coats go.
